National Intelligence Council
Memorandum

Volume I—Differences and Implications

Information available as of 16 November 1981 was used in the preparation of this report.

This Memorandum has been produced to stimulate discussion on military strategies in Korea. It has been discussed with the National Intelligence Council (NIC), the National Foreign Assessment Center, and senior US military officers. The views presented, however, are those of the author [redacted] of the NIC Analytic Group. Comments are welcome and should be addressed to [redacted]. Further details are presented in a companion Volume II, Military Strategies in Korea: Nature and Evolution. [redacted]
